

I believe that the "Do not call" program started by Gov. McGreevey is fair. Telemarketers should not be able to invade your home's personal privacy. Let them send mail if they feel the want to market something. Second of all names and phone number lists should not be sold to telemarketers without the permission of the person on the list.